

Gerald Crown, 29-Year-Old Tees Born Resident, Dies Here

Suffered From Heart Condition For Some Time; Services Held In Free Methodist Church

Gerald Lee Crown, twenty-nine-year-old resident of Lacombe, passed away at his home in Lacombe Saturday evening. Mr. Crown was an extremely well-known figure in Lacombe and district, and his passing will be mourned by a host of friends. He was born at Tees on Sept. 17, 1909, and received his education there and at Lacombe High School. For several years he lived on his parents' farm north of Tees, before moving to Lacombe proper about nine years ago.

While living here, Mr. Crown has worked at Avery's Bakery and at the Lacombe Nurseries, picking up several other odd jobs around town. For the past year, however, he has been troubled with his heart, and has done little work.

Funeral services were held from the Free Methodist Church here Tuesday, Rev. P. L. Chase officiating at the ceremony. The Lacombe Funeral Home had charge of the funeral arrangements. Interment was made at the Lacombe cemetery. The pallbearers were Stewart Abel, August Schmidt, and four cousins of the deceased, Basil Gordon, Wilfred Weatherill of Tees and Clint Gardner of Clive.

Mr. Crown leaves to mourn his loss his mother and father, two brothers, Burton of Lacombe and Byron of Tees, and one sister, Flora, of Lacombe.

The meeting opened with a song, followed by roll call, answered with an autograph verse. Final arrangements were made for the bazaar and the whist drive to be held in the school house Wednesday evening, Nov. 2.

Officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. E. A. Carter (re-elected); vice-president, Mrs. E. Ochs; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Charles Sweet; flower committee, Mrs. F. E. Glenens and Mrs. MacKinnon; sick committee, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. Ochs and Mrs. Winslow.

Fruit acknowledgements were sent in from Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Berauk and Mrs. Proctor. Baby Joan Proctor was presented with a very nice knitted set. November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carter.

Can You Beat It?

When A. P. Rainforth of the Eclipse School District grows pumpkins he really grows 'em. He dug a parsnip from his garden recently which weighed over four pounds, was thirty inches long and measured 1 1/4 inches around the top. If you can beat that . . . you deserve a leather medal.

J. Balog Injured In Tractor Accident

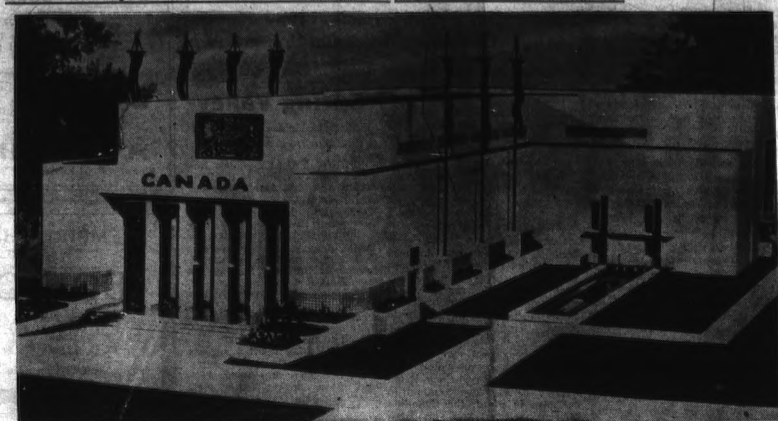

(From Our Own Correspondent)

BENTLEY.—John Balog, living about ten miles southwest of Bentley, was injured Wednesday afternoon of last week in a tractor accident. While stooping to adjust a log chain to the skids under a granary which was being moved, the clutch on the tractor slipped, backing the machine up and passing right over Mr. Balog. He was rushed to the Bentley Community Hospital, where he is progressing favorably.

Armistice Amateur Contest Promises to be Big Success

Canadian Legion Again Sponsors Annual Event; Two Classes Provided This Year

If enthusiasm means anything, then the Big Amateur Contest and Armistice Dance to be held in the Central Alberta Pavilion on Friday night, Nov. 11, will be a howling success. This contest has justly earned the reputation of being one of the finest annual events in Central Alberta, and this year again points to its being a banner event. Many applications have already been received in both the adult and the children's classes, and competition will be keen for all prizes.

From comments heard, the Canadian Legion made a wise move this year in creating two classes, with separate prizes for each class. The contest is open to ANYONE desiring to enter, and those contemplating doing so are asked to send their entries in immediately. Entry forms can be obtained from the Secretary, Canadian Legion; A. M. Campbell Ltd. or the Lacombe Globe.

Three prizes will be given in the adult class, and four prizes in the 14-years-and-under children's class.

The Concert and Amateur Contest will be followed by the Annual Big Dance, with Lou

Runaway Horses Hit Car Driven by Mrs. J. S. McCormick

A runaway team, started when the rig owned by Glen Hopus was struck from behind by a car, crashed into J. S. McCormick's automobile in front of the Calgary Power Co. office Tuesday evening, breaking the windshield and denting the body. Mrs. McCormick, who was driving the car at the time, and her daughter Mary, were unhurt save for a few bruises and minor abrasions.

The accident happened when James Archibald, living south of Clive, failed to see the reflector on the back of the rig. He crashed into the wagon and the horses bolted. The wagon was left behind when the team separated to go around a telephone pole. The rig struck the pole with force, and the horses were freed.

The next stage in the accident came when the horses galloped down Barnett Avenue onto the car driven by Mrs. McCormick. The driver stopped, but the frightened horses crashed into the car, breaking the windshield and causing dents in the body.

No great damage was done. The rig was battered slightly and Mr. McCormick's car dented. The car driven by Mr. Archibald was undamaged.

Athabasca By-Election Fight Expected to be Close Contest

By T. B. WINDROSS

EDMONTON.—With campaigns on both sides in full cry as this week opened, there still was no sign of any great interest in the Athabasca provincial by-election, which is scheduled for next Monday.

The Government's candidate is C. H. Tade, who won the seat in the province-wide Social Credit landslide in 1935 and then resigned to give the seat to the late Charles C. Ross, appointed to the cabinet. Opposing him is Rayner Whiteley, Liberal. Non-partisan observers in Edmonton believe that the fight will be close.

Premier William Aberhart's announcement of the "cancellation" of $3,821,000 of agricultural debts owing to the Government since 1917-22 was regarded here as a straight bid for support in Athabasca, but otherwise unimportant. Those debts were written off long ago for all practical purposes, inasmuch as many of the debtors had died and many more had abandoned their farms.

Surprising Statement

G. L. MacLachlan, chairman of the Social Credit Board, last week made a public statement which was surprising for its candor in view of the attitude which the Government has adopted towards debts owing to private creditors.

Roy Weise Has Car Smashed In Highway Accident

(From Our Own Correspondent)

BENTLEY.—Roy Weise had his sedan car completely wrecked in an accident on the highway west of Bentley Tuesday of last week. Mr. Weise was crossing the highway going north when his car was struck by a heavily loaded coal truck driven by Jack Brown of Rimbey. Constable Christophers of the Rimbey R.C.M.P. detachment investigated the accident.

VISITORS TO NORTHERN ALBERTA

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Frizzell, together with Mr. Frizzell's mother, brother Reuben and sister Jenny, returned on Tuesday night from a trip to Grande Prairie over the week-end. They report that the North country is surely worth seeing. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dool, former residents of the Lincoln district and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frizzell and found them nicely established in their new home.

A. Price Makes Golf's Hall of Fame With Hole-in-one

Weather makes no difference at all to the golf of Alf Price. Sunday, with its cold wind blowing and smoke filling the air and making visibility poor, Alf calmly sank a 175-yard hole-in-one on the par-three No. 6 hole at the local golf course. This is the second hole in one to be made at the Lacombe Golf Course this year, and the first one to be made on No. 6 hole this year.

With Alf in the golf game were D. Chisholm, Henry Trame and Bus Nelles. Skeptical, it is said that the four golfers looked everywhere but in the cup for the ball, before finding it.

Doris Danner Heads Student Body at Local High School

Doris Danner was elected president of the student body of the local high school in the elections held last Friday. Six candidates—Eleanor Trotter, Douglas Carr, Betty Stewart, Tom Ford and Elmer Young were nominated for the position. The election took place by ballots.

On Wednesday (yesterday) the officers of the various high school rooms were elected. The following comprise the executive: Grade 10—Mildred McKay. Grade 11—Eleanor Trotter. Grade 12—Jean MacDonald. Commercial High School—Edon Neilson.

100 Attend Eclipse Chicken Supper At G. Sharp's Home

Close to 100 guests attended the annual chicken supper put on by the Eclipse Ladies' Aid in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sharp, seven miles south of Clive, on Oct. 28. A program followed the supper, and a fish pond provided plenty of fun and noise for the young folks. Community singing was led by John Waterman, with Miss Edith Rainforth at the piano. Rod McLeod presented several vocal numbers in cowboy style, and he received a great hand from the audience.

A tap dance number, presented by Doris Sharp and Vera Short, was well received, and Mrs. F. Holton, accompanied by Mrs. R. Hain, danced at the piano, presented a solo.

Everyone enjoyed the evening and the Ladies' Aid added a substantial sum to their funds.

Red Deer Teachers' Group Annual Convention to be Held Here; Interesting Program

Approximately 150 school teachers of this district are expected to attend the annual Red Deer Teachers' Association convention, which is being held this year in Lacombe next Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 9 and 10. Prominent educationists from Calgary and Edmonton will be present to address the convention.

Mr. George Haverstock of the Edmonton Normal School is scheduled to speak on "Educational Policies" and on "Certification of Teachers"; Dr. Carpenter, principal of the Calgary Technical School; L. Thurber, inspector of schools, and A. Fowler of the Calgary Technical School staff are also slated to speak. An invitation has been extended to Professor G. M. Smith, dean of the Faculty of Arts, University of Alberta, to speak on Thursday. No reply has yet been received to the invitation.

Social activities are also being held in the form of a dance at the school for the visiting teachers on Wednesday, Nov. 9. A bazaar will be held in the Church Hall at 12 noon on the second day of the convention.

Program arrangements are in charge of E. G. Hale, principal of the Blackfalds School, and L. Mathieson of Lacombe School, assisted by the staff of the Lacombe Public School.

Nurses' Home Put Up For Sale By Hospital Board

The present nurses' home, alongside the old hospital building, is being offered for sale. This was decided by members of the hospital board at a special meeting held Monday night in the Town Office. The resolution calling for the sale of the bungalow was passed as follows:

"That this board authorizes the sale of the present nurses' home through the Fraser-McDonald Agency. . . . Should such sale materialize within sixty days, the vice-chairman and the secretary are authorized to sign a receipt for the said property upon receipt of the purchase price."

Approval of the board for the sale of the old hospital building to T. H. Laughlin was also given.

It was decided that, should the nurses' home be sold, the nurses at present living there would take up residence in the hospital proper, until such time as a new nurses' home can be built.

S. J. Waterman President of Bible Society

S. J. Waterman was elected president at the annual meeting of the local branch of the Foreign Bible Society held in the United Church following the Sunday evening service. Dr. E. M. Sharpe was elected secretary-treasurer. It was decided that the annual canvass should be made within a few days, and the following were appointed as collectors:

Rev. W. E. Herbert, A. Newman, Miss Modell, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. J. Bucher, Mrs. J. Craigen, Mrs. Coxson, Miss E. Berry, Mrs. T. Lett, Mrs. R. Ramsay, Mrs. A. French, Mrs. J. Graydon and Mrs. N. E. Glasgow.

Municipal Districts Hold Convention

Delegates at the Central Alberta Association of Municipal Districts expressed themselves as being in favor of the levying of a minimum tax on all resident workers within municipal districts at the annual convention of the organization held in Red Deer last Saturday. Hospitalization, taxes and health occupied most of the time of the meetings. The municipalities represented at the gathering were Blindman, Lorne, Fertile Valley, Crown, Arthur, Poplar Grove, Golden West and Pine Lake.

Music in the Lacombe School

ALTHOUGH Red Deer-Lacombe Musical Festival was dropped two years ago, owing to time lost to the polio epidemics, music in Lacombe school has not been neglected; indeed, it has been given more time and attention than in Festival days. This has been due, perhaps, to the fact that music has now a definite place on the High School program, necessitating preparatory work in the Public School; and to the addition of teachers on the staff who are especially interested in this subject. The School Board, following its policy of giving Lacombe youth the advantages of city school education, co-operated heartily with the staff in its efforts to make the students music conscious, and two years ago bought the school a gramophone and a very fine library of records for the purpose of teaching music appreciation. About a year later, W. N. Morrison presented the school with a radio. This instrument is particularly valuable in bringing world broadcasts to students. During the recent European war, the students who had to remain at school during the noon hour were able to hear Hitler's broadcast.

This year, Lacombe school staff was augmented by two more musicians: Miss Mary Smith, A.T.C.M., L.A.R.M., in the Intermediate School, and Miss Vera Hoe, an accomplished pianist and experienced Festival worker, in the Public School. The other two new members of the staff are also musically-minded.

Unfortunately for the music classes, the auditorium is in constant use by the Commercial classes. The piano is in the hall and the two upper Public School rooms push the instrument into their rooms as needed. Other rooms must shut in the hall to get the use of the piano. This is distracting, both for pupils in the class and all others on the floor.

A second piano is badly needed for the Public School. As Miss Pratt's room dismisses half an hour earlier than the other rooms, it could be kept in her room and music classes held from 11:30 to 12:00 a.m. and 3:30 to 4:00 p.m., without disturbance to others.

Members of the Lacombe school staff are endeavoring to raise funds to provide this new piano. They need, and should get, the wholehearted support of every Lacombe citizen.

Solid Citizen Professors

(From the Gateway, University of Alberta student newspaper).

WHAT the University of Alberta needs most—more than a new library or a winning rugby team—is professors with ants in their pants. Ants of reform like the ones that agitated Dr. Alexander.

A proper university education ought to leave a young man or woman very much aware of the ills of the world and firmly resolved to help correct some of them. If, as they are so often told, university students are to be the future leaders of the country, is it not vital that there be instilled in them the urge to better the lot of their fellow man, the desire to leave the world a little more pleasant for their having lived in it?

Professors have it pretty easy. Their working days are short, their holidays long and frequent, their pay comfortable. Most professors are concerned over the state of the world and anxious that all sorts of reforms be carried out. Surely it is not too much to ask them to use a little of their leisure in discussing world problems and their solutions with the students. Should it not be their duty and their pleasure to point out to youth the way to a better world?

Let us have radical professors, even mad professors. Let us have long-haired, glitter-eyed, shaking fore-fingered professors. But let us have no more Solid Citizen professors.

What They Are Saying

"I think it should be the first rule of journalism that a newspaper which cannot make money at the business of building up public opinion toward a true democracy should fold up and be forgotten."—Harold Weir, Editor, Vancouver Sun.

"It is always worth thinking when people talk rashly about what is accomplished by younger men, that Stalin and Hitler and Mussolini were all comparatively young men when they started their careers, and they certainly get a tremendous amount of support from youth."—Earl Baldwin

"Canada faces two major problems today. One has to do with the assimilation of the French-Canadians. The other concerns the Japanese."—Senator J. W. DeParris.

"There is a lot of bluffing in Europe, and Hitler is the biggest bluff of all and getting away with it."—Julius S. Bache.

Through the Eyes of a Country Woman

By BRIDGET

Last Tuesday evening a much advertised broadcast came over the air from CPFCN, Calgary—that of the Texaco Editor. I have usually listened to these broadcasts with much interest, but last week the Editor did not give us his usual interesting talk on current topics, but interviewed a lady of German birth, recently returned from a trip in England and Sudeten land, and I was frankly aghast that such an erroneous picture of England should be allowed on the air for many thousands to hear.

I know we British can bear criticism, but an unfair comparison with Germany, backed by mis-statements, is of no constructive value, and very detrimental to British prestige. At this time of unrest, it is most dangerous to run down our Mother Country, even by inference.

This lady, in giving her views, lauded the health facilities in Germany, suggesting, and giving supposed incident, to show that in England, unless blest with money, one could not get medical care and hospitalization. This is so far from the facts as to be almost laughable. England led the world with State Health Insurance; domestic servant, civil servant, laborer and clerk all had their little card on which they stuck some stamps called operation on his brain, simply by virtue of his State Health Insurance, and that luck placed him in the hospital where this surgeon gave his services.

Next, the lady told of the plight of the Welsh miners, and told how Germans, however, could run a mine there with profit. What she omitted to say was, that England lost her coal market in Germany during the war. Mines could not be run profitably without a German market, so mines deteriorated, and Germany took advantage of England's embarrassment and bought mining interests cheaply and shipped coal to Germany, although refusing to buy British-mined coal. "Slick!" No one deplores the lot of the Welsh miner more than I do, but to make capital of it, to the detriment of England, is not "cricket!"

Yes, there are thousands and thousands of unemployed in England, but there is a very comprehensive system of unemployment benefit, and there is no reason why anyone should starve. Lack of applying correctly or of registering, has caused poverty in England.

This lady gave an instance of a Jewish medical student getting a job, and suggesting that there were Gentile medical students who could not get jobs in England. Well, a Jew is a human being, and IT only shows that the Sons of Judah look after their own; it is to their discredit of Gentiles that assistance is not forthcoming for THEIR SONS and daughters if needed. Still, doctors unemployed in England seems to make no sense, as the hospitals are always saying that they are understaffed.

The only thing that this lady appears to deplore in Germany is the lack of freedom of speech. After hearing this broadcast, I wondered if freedom of speech is all that it is cracked up to be, if it allows stuff like this to come over the air.

There are so many thousands of Nazi agents all over the world that it is a pity that misstatements of this ilk can be broadcast over a British station.

This lady stated very emphatically that all the Sudeten Germans were very desirous of returning to German domination; I wonder if she just said and heard what she wanted, and what she was intended, to see and hear? It does not tally with reports from official sources on the subject. A very large percentage of this population were aghast at the prospect of severing all Czech connections.

Her answers to the question, "Where does Hitler get the money from?" were illuminating: shades of Social Credit! Money in the savings banks is used by the State, and the conclusion to be drawn is that Germany depends solely on force for obtaining money.

I do not think that free-born Britons admire the regimental regime of Fascism, and I can see no good object to be attained by allowing such misrepresentations of facts to be broadcast. That it was just one woman's ideas, I realize, but the Editor gave her such a strong "build-up" that many will accept and swallow that broadcast whole; it is very apt to give them indigestion, I think! How can decent people laud a nation that treats human beings the way that Germany does? It has just come over the radio that many thousands of German Jews have been driven over the borders with only $4 apiece to their names. God in his Heaven must look down and weep to see that creatures "made in His image" can do this to His people.

The lady interviewed did not mention what Germany was doing to the Jewish children not yet driven out. They are compelled to sit by themselves, not near any "Aryan" child, thereby creating a little ghetto in every schoolroom. No free books are allowed them, and as the opportunities for Jews to earn money are strictly limited in Nazi Germany, they are severely handicapped. Perhaps the lady thinks this is a right spirit to show to little children, of whom Christ said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

My space is about done, but I would like to end with this thought, that it behooves all decent and patriotic Canadians to examine such interviews closely, and not swallow everything that comes over the air, hook, line and sinker, even if a skilful "build-up" gives it all the appearance of truth.

"I still believe there will be no war."—A. Beverley Baxter, British M.P.

Bren Gun Enquiry Paving Way For Anglo-Canadian Arms Co-Ordination?

Scene—A courtroom in Canada's capital city. The witness, a tall, square-built man with black hair, is answering questions in a rapid stream of sentences which a distinct Scottish burr make it sometimes hard to catch.

Strung together, these staccato answers tell an interesting story to a country just recovering its nerves after being dragged back from the brink of a war chasm.

Canada's militia was being "crucified." Canada's defenses were being "starved." Canada was unable to carry out an adequate armament program on a government ownership basis because she had not the funds to spend.

This was the picture that Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of National Defence, presented. As evidence in the Royal Commission inquiry it was relevant enough to the case in point, the Canadian government contract for Bren machine guns with the John Inglis Co. But it was more than a mere contract. Those close to government circles are convinced that Mr. Mackenzie's message was carefully prepared with the double purpose of prodding Canadian public opinion and reassuring War Office officials in London, England, of the Canadian government's stand on the imperial defence program.

The Bren gun contract is believed to be only one small item in a carefully laid plan for Anglo-Canadian co-ordination of armament resources. There has been evidence to indicate that the British government was anxious to have the Canadian government set up its own arsenal for the manufacture of these machine guns. But Mr. Mackenzie told the inquiry that that would have been impossible on the money that Parliament had voted for defence purposes. If faults are found in the present contract for private manufacture, those faults will be reflected in the similar contract signed with the British War Office.

This fact is understood to have given the Canadian cabinet not a few worrying moments in the past few weeks. There is a fear lurking in the back of official minds that if the Inglis contract does not stand the light of a Royal Commission spotlight, it may have a far reaching effect on the future of the Anglo-Canadian program.

Increase in Estimates Whatever the tenor of the report which Commissioner J. J. Davis presents as the result of the probe there are indications that one result of the inquiry will be a substantial increase in Defence estimates.

One purpose behind the increasing estimates, it is understood, is a comprehensive plan for the building up of Canada's air force and air defenses in co-operation with the British government. A scheme for training of pilots is now under consideration, which will be related to the British system, already operating. Plans for manufacture of war planes, initiated last year with the visit of the British Air Mission, are progressing.

In addition to the air defences a program of overhauling the Canadian militia and the Cana-

Spring Valley

(From Our Own Correspondent)

SPRING VALLEY.—Jack Rust was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hensen.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Miller spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vincent of Red Deer.

Don't forget that the Rev. Dr. Tuttle, principal of St. Stephen's College, Edmonton is expected to preach at the next Sunday service, Nov. 6.

The president and officers of the Spring Valley Ladies' Aid wish to thank all those who by their contributions or their labor helped to make the chicken supper last Friday night a success. About $45 was realized.

On Oct. 29 at Rosemary, Alta., one of our Spring Valley girls, Miss Tena Harder, was married to Mr. Peter Walke of Rosemary.

Mr. and Mrs. Harder left Thursday of last week to be present at the ceremony. A shower for the bride was given at the home of her parents about a week ago. The best wishes of the community are extended.

Robert Hainsworth was a Saturday visitor at Rimby.

Fairview

(From Our Own Correspondent)

FAIRVIEW.—Don Calkins left for the West Coast last week and plans to visit Vancouver, Seattle and other points on the West Coast of the U.S. He will visit his great uncles in Salem, Ore.

The King family visited at Rimby recently at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Muttie and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Garrett. The threshing is completed in that district, with crops turning out about the same as at Lacombe.

Mrs. Mary Fiedler has returned to her home in Salem, Ore. She visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Penstock, for a couple of months.

The Fairview chicken supper was held in Arbrodale school last Friday. The event was quite a success. The Ponoka United Church choir was in attendance and their entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Vernon Milne of Edmonton, formerly of this district, was at the supper, and is to visit here for a while.

A number of young people went to the dance at Milton after the chicken supper.

C. Uwin visited in the Peace River district for a few days last week.

Canadian navy on a scale never before contemplated is being studied.

Such a program is likely to make a fairly heavy demand on Canadian tax resources and will need public opinion behind it if it is to succeed. Whether designed for this purpose, Mr. Mackenzie's evidence is believed exceedingly opportune in promoting the government's plans.

Famous Choir To Sing in Edmonton

Last surviving remnant of one of the most colorful peoples of European history, and unique exponents of some of the most stirring music ever conceived, the famous Don Cossacks pay their fourth visit to Edmonton on Nov. 9. The 36 giant "singing horsemen of the Steppes," under the leadership of pint-sized Serge Jaroff, hold the record of having sung more consecutive concerts and appeared in more cities than any other choral organization in the world.

Descended from those fiery brigands of the past who slashed through forests on reckless steeds to plant the Russian flag over new and boundless territories—fighting for freedom and for God and country—the members of the Don Cossack Chorus were first organized as a musical unit in the notorious "Camp of Death" near Constantinople. During their exile the prisoners were trained by Serge Jaroff and on their escape the Cossacks quickly became an international success. To have this amazing choir in Edmonton is the rarest of musical treats—the incredible haunting beauty of every song they sing is unforgettable.

The Don Cossacks are sponsored by the Junior Hospital League in Edmonton, and will present their program in the Empire Theatre.

Tees Tattle Tales

By TATTLER

TEES.—The chicken supper sponsored by the Ladies' Aid last Friday evening turned out to be a wonderful success. Towards the end, the chicken played out, but everyone had enough to eat. After the supper a concert was presented by local talent, following which the floor was cleared and dancing indulged in. A home crocheted bedspread was drawn for and won by Fred Hobson.

Some of our young people are more hockey inclined than others. Miss Elsie Cunningham, Miss Lillian Gogberg and Mrs. T. Gogberg spent two nights traveling to see a fast game in Edmonton, besides doing a bit of shopping. Leaving Tees after the dance at 2:30 Saturday morning, they caught the north train to take in the professional game on Saturday night.

Visitor from Vancouver. Recent visitors to town were Miss Mary Phillips of Vancouver, accompanied by her brother, A. Phillips of Red Deer, who spent the afternoon with Mrs. Seal.

The Salvation Army took Tees by storm over last week-end while collecting harvest donations.

We, of Tees, are wondering when the big-wigs of Clive are going to paint a yellow road marker with a sign, "Danger—Keep to the Right." Just south of their town where the road hits the Buffalo Lake Trail. If not that, how about teaching some of the drivers road sense? Several accidents have been narrowly averted at that corner and it has not been for the quick thinking of those coming out of town. A few have not been averted—for instance one family almost missed their chicken supper last Friday.

Spruceville

(From Our Own Correspondent)

SPRUCVILLE.—Mrs. Bob McGeechey had a pleasant surprise last Saturday when her father, Mr. Ferguson of Ste. Anne de Bellevue, near Quebec, and her son, Mr. Wylie of Vegreville, arrived for a short visit. Although they were expected, no definite date of arrival was known. They plan leaving about the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Boden motored out east of Lacombe on Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gale.

Last call for Spruceville chicken supper, Friday, Nov. 4. This is an annual event that should not be missed. This supper has been put on in Spruceville Hall for the last 18 years—a unique record for this locality. Many inquiries have been received about the beautiful cake to be raffled at this supper. The cake was made by Mrs. O. S. Young from her usual Christmas cake recipe and was led by Mrs. Walker to symbolize the Christmas spirit with little Spruce trees, which are also symbolic of our district—Spruceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munce were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. L. I. Young had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Walker on Sunday.

Electrical Industry Up in New Zealand

UAKLAND, New Zealand.—The amazing growth of the electrical industry in New Zealand—current being now available to 93.9 per cent of the population—was described recently by H. G. Kemp, President of the Electric Supply Authority Engineers' Association.

In 1920 electricity was available to only 43 per cent of the population. Since then the number of consumers has risen from 38,500 to 388,000. The cost to the consumer at the same time has been greatly reduced. In 1920 the average cost to the consumer per unit was 3.15 pence; last year it was only 1.81 pence. The capital load decreases a use in worthy character of the industry is water power, which New Zealand possesses in abundance.

BLACKFALDS.—The Blackfalds Graders' Club, under the able leadership and guidance of Mrs. J. V. N. Miller and Miss Hortense Capron, have started their season's activities with a bang! Owing to the resignation of Jean Warren as treasurer, Agnes Farewell was elected to that office. The membership was increased to twenty by the enrolment of six new members. Farewell Party Given Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haskins on Tuesday evening to bid them farewell before their departure for Beaverlodge. A social evening was spent, at the close of which they were presented with a tray by the Get-together Club, and a silver casserole. They left by motor on Thursday for Beaverlodge, where Mr. Haskins takes charge of the oil station located there.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskins are well known in this district and their many friends wish them much success in their new venture. The Intermediate and High School rooms of the Bentley school, with their teachers, held Halloween parties in their respective rooms on Saturday evening. Stunts and games were the order of the evening, after which lunch was served.

Messrs. Ray Gideon, W. Whitell, Lorne Craig, M. S. Withrill and W. Ingram left Sunday for Drayton Valley, where they hope to be successful in bringing down the big game.

Mrs. J. P. Miller spent the week-end in Edmonton, a guest of her son Campbell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carratt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson, Garth and Betty spent the week-end in Edmonton visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carratt's daughter, Mrs. H. Shandruk, and Mr. Shandruk.

New Arrivals
Born at the Bentley Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. E. Hines of Rimby, on Oct. 29, a son.

The boys of the Explorers, Taxis and Trail Rangers club, trained their fathers to a Father-and-Son banquet at the Club Rooms on Friday evening. About 50 sat down to tables loaded with victuals, to which everyone did justice. After supper, Rev. Geo. Young Ponka spoke to the boys and fathers on the Trail Ranger Promise. He pointed out how the four-point promise—

"Seek Truth, Cherish Health, Love God and Serve Others"—was the best set of rules to follow. He showed for example how the lives of many prominent men had been based on these four factors and he told the fathers they need not worry that their sons would be inmates of jails or mental or organizations as long as they kept the Trail Ranger Promise in mind.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Szasz wish to thank their friends and neighbors for the help rendered during their recent fire.

Fact and Fiction

By ART

Truth is stranger than Fiction, we are told, but if you still doubt that old saying, let me tell you the story of Little Jim, call him Jim because his real name probably wouldn't interest you anyway.

I first met Jim back in '26 when he was a clerk in a Calgary store. Jim was about 25 years of age, quiet, neat and efficient—a young fellow, who kept to himself most of the time, but in back of his quietness Jim had a mind about as sharp as your Uncle Newt's razor.

Well, Jim just kept a-plugging along just the same as you or I—with one exception: He could see a big boom coming down there in the Turner Valley oil fields, and we couldn't. So Jim took every day he could spare week after week, month after month, and bought shares in a well-known oil company—at ten cents a share. Nothing secretive about Jim either, for he passed the good word along to many of us, but we just couldn't be buying oil shares at ten cents apiece when they couldn't even be resold for half that price.

Well, in about a year's time a nice little boom hit the oil market and Little Jim's stock went to a dollar. Jim wasn't fooled by that flash in the pan. No sir, he could see a real boom 'comin' way off in the distance, and he just kept a-buyin' as much as he could handle of that same stock.

Then in '29 came the real BOOM—the one Jim had been waiting for. His stock started up the ladder and never looked back until it had touched Ten Dollars a share. Jim's waiting days were over; he sold his shares, quit his job, bought an ultra-modern car and took up residence at the Palliser.

Organizing a company of his own, he bought a dandy location for a well in Turner Valley and started to drill. Then the drums struck the Valley and he was forced to close down the well when it was half-completed through lack of funds. "Jim had run out of 'ammunition.' His luck was out, and it stayed out for a good many years.

A few months ago I saw Little Jim in Calgary—the prosperity of the Palliser era had disappeared, along with the big car, but the faith of his clerking days remained. He's waiting for the day when he can finance the completion of his

Letter Requesting State Credit House Here Acknowledged

No definite reply to the resolution forwarded to the Provincial Government recently by the Lacombe Social Credit Association asking that a provincial reassessment branch be opened here has been received. Acknowledgment of the receipt of the resolution has been received only, according to President T. F. Roberts, who believed that the lack of trained men for the running of these branches was the reason for the delay.

Treasury Branches Meet Indifference In Province?

By T. B. WINDROSS

EDMONTON—The treasury branches, also called "credit houses," are continuing operation in the seven points where they have been established. They have met no opposition whatever, except the almost complete indifference of the people. Chartered banks have been giving the treasury branches every co-operation possible, honoring their cheques when presented by clients in good repute and providing cash in exchange for them. Such co-operation is reported to have been a sore blow to the plan which the Government and the Social Credit Board were reputed to have drawn up for propaganda against the banks on the basis of expected opposition.

The indifference with which the people are treating the "credit houses" was shown in Edmonton last week. The Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association arranged a big dinner meeting to discuss and explain the scheme. G. L. MacLachlan, M.L.A., and Floyd Baker, M.L.A., as chairman and secretary of the Social Credit Board, were invited to address the meeting. Three hundred merchants were invited. But only 20 of them accepted, so the meeting had to be cancelled.

Police investigating the accident told Mr. Price that, according to law, a pedestrian must walk on the left side of the road, facing oncoming traffic.

The old-fashioned farmer was hard to convince. "No," declared he. "I'll have no such contraption in my house. Planers are bad things."

"Oh, father," protested his daughter, "this is an upright piano."

Pedestrian Walking On Right Side of Road; Hit by Car

Pedestrians walking on highways in Alberta are required to walk on the left-hand side of the road by law. This point was brought out following an accident on the Gull Lake highway Wednesday night of last week. Pete Prins, living west of Lacombe, was struck by a car while walking on the right-hand side of the road. He received a broken arm and bruises.
